

3. Documents for obtaining a visa invitation for accompanying family members

List of documents for obtaining a visa invitation for accompanying family members of the foreign specialist

1. State fee in the amount of 800 rubles for issuing an invitation - for each member;
2. Copy of the foreign citizen's passport (the one who is accompanying family member).

Passport must be valid for at least 2 years, and must have at least 2 blank page;

3. Copy of the document confirming the relationship with foreign specialist (for spouses - a marriage certificate, for children - a birth certificate.). The documents must be legalized and the translation of the copies certified by a notary;

4. Copy of the foreign specialist's employment contract;

5. If the accompanying family member works, he/she has to provide the name, full address of the organization and position. If accompanying family member does not work, then the full permanent residence address in the country of living.